On the first line of the sea, on Salgueiros Beach in Canidelo, Vila Nova de Gaia, this small park offers one of the most beautiful views from its excellent pool and offers tourist accommodation and camping and caravanning areas. . By car, it is 10 minutes to Porto's historic center, across the Luis I Bridge, to Ribeira. Just 2 km from the Douro Estuary Nature Reserve and featuring cycle and pedestrian trails, 10 km from the sport Pavilion, it allows you to take advantage of the extensive sea coast line to Rio. In the morning, a visit to the Afurada Fish Market is recommended. From here it is also possible to make the crossing to Porto by Rio-Taxi, then take the tourist line served by public transport, towards Foz (Castelo do Queijo) or Baixa do Porto (Ribeira). Wine lovers should not miss a visit to the Port Wine Cellars, facing the Douro cruise docks, flanked by restaurants and terraces with a varied gastronomic offer.

17TH OGKK EUROPEAN GASSHUKU - About Camping

Orbitur Madalena- Bungallows -

<https://www.orbitur.pt/pt/destinos/regiao-norte/orbitur-madalena>

Situated in a pine forest, 500 m from Madalena beach, 10 km from the center of Gaia and the sport Pavilion. This park, with a high quality standard, can combine the beach, countryside and town, and give you a good holiday. In addition to the beautiful northern beaches that extend along the Douro Litoral, we recommend the following visits: Solar dos Condes de Campo Belo, the Mother Church and the Teixeira Lopes House Museum in Gaia. It has accommodation, business support services and good sports and recreational facilities, including swimming pools. Be sure to taste the lamb in the oven accompanied by the famous Douro wines.

From the Chairman (OGKK Portugal - ASGKP)

Greetings

Dear Senseis, students, parents, guest and friends

As the Chairman of this OGKK branch, Shoshakai Gojuryu Karatedo Portugal, it's with great honor that I welcome you to the 17th European Gasshuku of the Okinawa Gojuryu Karatedo Kyokai in my City, Gaia, Portugal.

This seminar for us, has a huge significant because it has past many years without having such a Gojuryu seminar, with several great OGKK Okinawa masters, at the same time, in Portugal.

We are very proud to present this opportunity to learn from great masters, who come from a great lineage, Master Eiichi Myazato and Master Koshin Iha, who learned from Gojuryu founder, Master Chojun Myagi until he passed away.

Looking forward to receiving from you a good assistance, in helping to promote this great event, all over Europe and other continents.

Finally, I would like to thank , to all the volunteers for this organization.

Vitor Gomes,

About Culture

Port Wine Cellars (Portuguese: Caves de Vinho do Porto) -

Vila Nova de Gaia is known for the port wine production, especially wine cellars where port wine is stored attract tourists' attention. Port Wine Cellars are located on the left bank of Douro river in Vila Nova de Gaia. There are around 60 port houses in this area, some of them are open for visitors to watch the process of producing port wine.

Religious heritage

Monastery of Serra do Pilar (Portuguese:

Mosteiro da Serra do Pilar) is at the top of the Pilar mountain range (called Serra do Pilar), in the parish of Santa Marinha. The construction of this Church began in 1538 according to the order of John III of Portugal in order to transfer monks of Grijó to a new place after the Salvador de Grijó Monastery ruined. The Church has a circular shape covered with a dome surrounded by a balcony. The Church has been classified as Property of Public Interest since 1935.

About GAIA

Vila Nova de Gaia (often known by the syncopated form of Gaia) is a municipality and Portuguese city of the metropolitan area of Porto and the northern region with about 302,324 inhabitants in its urban perimeter (2014). The city is located on the south Bank of the mouth of the Douro River. The wineries of the famous port wine are located in this county. Originally formed from two distinct settlements, Gaia and Vila Nova, the city was elevated on June 28, 1984.

Gaia has and always had a very strong connection to the neighboring city of Oporto, not only by sharing the common heritage of port wine, but also by the fact that in the past, the bourgeois and noble families of Porto have, in Vila Nova de Gaia, farms and holiday homes. In recent decades, due to economic growth and improved communications with the Northern bank of the Douro River, Vila Nova de Gaia has progressively welcomed the population working daily in Oporto (mainly due to the construction of the Porto Metro, which stimulated and made even more functional these commuting movements between Gaia and Oporto), as well as is a county where they work and reside many citizens originating in the neighboring municipalities of the metropolitan area of Porto. Gaia is a weekly county of residence, during weekdays, of many natural citizens of these counties working in the urban space of Gaia or Oporto or Matosinhos, due to the fact that the cost of the dwellings is lower in Gaia than in the urban space of Porto and being very close to Oporto, which made Gaia become one of the most populous counties in the country.
